Administration Building

Foreward

The 1949 Hyakem presents in eight distinctive sections a composite year at Central Washington College designed to record students' participation in pursuits of happiness, their endeavor for intellectual achievements, their ardent cry "on to victory urge the heroes", their desire for comradeships within living groups, all of these we give to you in words and pictures.

Dedication

The Hyakem for the Year,
Nineteen Hundred and Forty-
Nine, Is Proudly Dedicated to Harold "Pete" Barto

"I have always believed that Central renders a valuable service to the citizens of the State of Washington. Her recent growth is proof of her ability to render such service well."

This is the observation of Pete (only his mother ever called him Harold) Barto, professor of history at CWCE, who "always had a yen for teaching, even when in grade school."

Professor Barto's early life did not seem to indicate that he would become the dedicee of a college annual. As a youngster he was interested in hunting, fishing, sailboats and canoing. Later he engaged in farm work, sawmilling, logging, steamboating, went to sea, and sold insurance. He saw service in the Signal Corps in World War I.

Seventeen years have elapsed since he came to Central as an assistant coach and an instructor in history. Since then he also served as Director of Student Employment, Registrar, and chairman of the division of the social sciences. He is now devoting his time to teaching.

"I have always been interested in people," he says, and some 3000 students who have learned and laughed in his classes will agree.

President's Message

The Hyakem each year leaves a record of all phases of college life. The Editor and his staff are required to give a great deal of thought to assembling information and pictures. Plans must be made early in this year to cover all activities. This is work for which we are all grateful because we always enjoy having a complete record of college life. Students and faculty alike refer to these books many times in subsequent years.

We may wish to find the picture of a former teacher, a classmate or a roommate. Or we may wish to show a picture of a college building to a friend. Our memories are stimulated and pleasant sentiments are revived when we leaf through the book and see the personnel who participated in art, band, choir, dramatic productions, parades, social events, athletic contests, laboratories, and the many student organizations.

The Editor of the 1949 Hyakem and his staff are to be complimented on the creation of this excellent yearbook. This has been an interesting year in many ways. The number of students has reached an all-time high. This has enabled us to produce excellent results in all organized activities, due to an abundance of talent. The teachers-education work, the arts and science programs, and the junior college pre-professional programs have all thrived. There has been a calm and constructive atmosphere as compared to the war years.

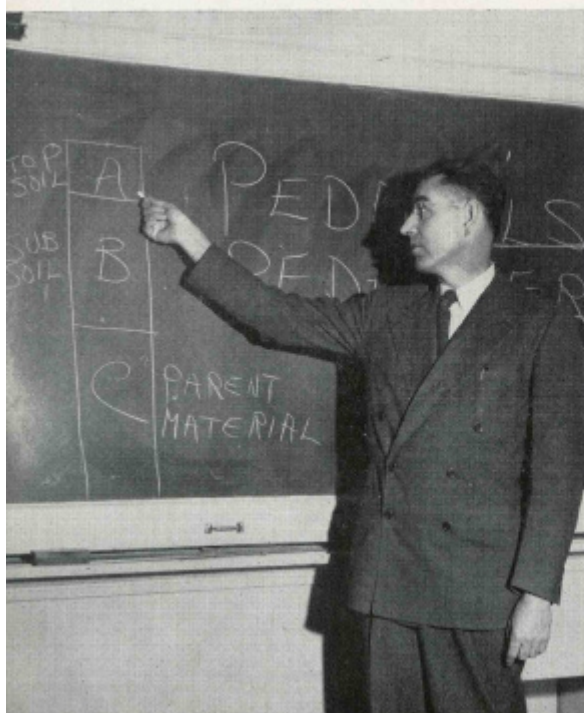

I am happy to join with others in extending to the seniors our very best wishes as they depart from the campus. May the years ahead bring happiness and success. Central will follow you with interest and will be happy to welcome you back for as many visits as you can arrange.

Dean of Women's Message

One of the oldest and most cherished of college traditions is that of the annual. Throughout the nation college students have been busily working on their yearbooks. Here at Central we are ready once again to turn the pages of our Hyakem. It comes as the final act of the year—the achievement to include all other achievements. Our sincere appreciation goes out to the members of the Hyakem staff for giving so generously of their time and energy to create this album of memory—awakening pictures and paragraphs. May this Hyakem preserve, for all who wish to remember, the Central Washington College of 1948-49, now and forever.

Dean of Men's Message

Annuals contain a pictorial record of students and their activities during a given school year. This year's HYAKEM provides us with a permanent reminder of the splendid student body with whom we were privileged to work and play during 1948-1949.

Seniors

On February 19th, the class of 1949 sponsored a Senior Sno-Carnival which was to provide a full day of winter fun for all students at school, but a combination of snow and ice blocked plans. A ski tog dance was held in the old gym in the evening. Nancy Vick, the Sno-Carnival Queen, was crowned at halftime of the C.P.S. game on Friday night and presented with a pair of skis and bindings. The three princesses, Amy Legg, Lois Dryden, and Maxine Houston were presented with red ski hats and mitts. Under the chairmanship of Larry Lindberg, the Sno-Carnival Dance was a big success. The senior class hopes that this event may be the launching of a traditional class activity.

The serious minded seniors then turned their thoughts to commencement and a week crowded with activities. These included a junior-senior picnic, a senior-faculty party, a senior-parent-faculty banquet, baccalaureate, and lastly commencement exercises on June 5.

The class of 1949 was represented in its last year at C.W.C.E. by Delmar Thompson as president, Larry Lindberg as vice-president, Joyce Bonlie as secretary, and Betty Byars as treasurer. Dr. Reginald Shaw was class advisor.

Juniors

A skit, sign, and float for homecoming were the first activities on the calendar for the Junior class. As chairmen for these committees were the social chairmen, Ernest Wennhold and Loren Townsend. Second prize was won on the sign.

At the first meeting of the year officers elected were: president, Howard Evans; vice-president, Dale Troxel; secretary-treasurer, Margaret Flanagan; co-social chairmen were Evelyn Offield and Ray Strong. Winter quarter Margaret Flanagan left the campus and Evelyn Cain was appointed secretary-treasurer for the rest of the year.

The highlight of the year was the annual Barndance given February 26; acting as chairmen of the dance were the social chairmen. Typical decorations for the occasion turned the gym into a corral. Modern music was furnished by the Combo with a few old time pieces put in. The beard growing contest was the feature of intermission.

In the latter part of the Spring the juniors gave a picnic in honor of the graduating seniors.

Sophomores

The sophomore class began the fall quarter by electing the following officers: Steve Smith, president; Pete Whitson, vice-president; Don Lowe, treasurer; Bonnie Wickholm, secretary; Dot Safreed, Tom Millar, co-social chairman. Donna Sears was appointed publicity chairman by the president.

An old-fashioned grease pole fight between the freshmen and sophomores gave the sophs the privilege of lighting the homecoming bonfire. Dr. Stevens acted as referee for the bout and the "W" Club patrolled the area.

The class gave a homecoming skit "Beetlebomb" and entered a cooking pot full of stewed Savages as their float.

The sophs got the jump on everyone else by presenting the first sock dance of the year, the "Skiwhiz", with music furnished by the Combo. The event was a big success with a $5.00 door prize gift certificate as an added attraction.

The sophomore class nominated Nancy Vick as their candidate for Ski Queen of the Sno-Carnival.

On February 12, the sophs again got ahead of the other classes by giving the annual tolo, Cupid's Informal. The Sue dining hall was decorated with a clever valentine theme. Al Adams reigned as King Cupid. The band of Jack Decker of Yakima furnished the music for a wonderful evening of dancing.

During the spring the sophomores gave a mixer for the enjoyment of the whole class.

Fresh

The Freshman Class started out their first college year with the new idea of different class officers each quarter. This proved to be very satisfactory for, with a class of its size, it gave more students a chance to participate in the actual leadership.

The class enthusiastically started to function with Homecoming. The bon-fire was one of the best ever seen by Central and a Greased Pole Contest between Freshman and Sophomores was indeed a memorable occasion for everyone. The Homecoming float outshone many others to take second prize and the Freshmen proved their originality with the presentation of their skit.

Under the direction of new class officers and with the coming of Winter Quarter the class presented the "Ground Hog Gripe" a dance staged around the theme of Grounds Hog Day.

The success of this year was not entirely due to the members of the class. Mr. Hobson, new class advisor, was a great asset with his eager and helping suggestions.

Class officers for the year were:

1st Quarter—President, Bill Shandera; vice-president, Jack Ball; secretary-treasurer, Margaret Oebser; Social Commissioner, Leigh Nold.

2nd Quarter—President, Bob Brine; vice-president, Verna Jones; secretary-treasurer, Rosemary Board; Social Commissioners, Marilyn Dreher, and Ray Cain.

Activities

Queen Beverly

The Homecoming of 1948 was without doubt the biggest and the best in the history of C.W.C.E. The success of this traditional affair was due in large part to the detailed and long range planning of the efficient Homecoming chairmen, Phyllis Dunlap and Jim Brooks.

Working with these leaders were the following committee co-chairmen: Stunt Night, Winnie Williams and Wesley Peach; Parade, Dorothy Uusitalo and LeRoy Meek; Signs, Betty Byars and George Moergeli; Banquet, Olga Belzer; Radio Program, Delmar Thompson, Dan Ranniger, Don Fenton; Dance, Delmar Thompson; Publicity, Dan Ranniger and Don Fenton; Frosh-Soph Contest, Larry Lindberg and class presidents.

The whole Homecoming program proved to be full of innovations. The first one was that it opened officially on Wednesday night, November 8, with a radio program. Delmar Thompson served as master of ceremonies. Broadcasting over the local station KXLE from a packed auditorium, he first introduced co-chairmen Dunlap and Brooks, who gave a forecast of the various events planned. Next came the coronation. Escorted to the stage by the members of the Intercollegiate Knights, Queen Beverly Rasmussen was crowned by Dr. McConnell and pronounced "Queen Beverly of the 1948 Homecoming." She was attended by Princesses Evelyn Cain and Lorraine Knutsen.

The ever popular stunt night was given on two successive nights to accommodate the large crowds. The stunts were varied and clever enough to provide an evening of good entertainment. The judges were Miss Hazel Brain, Mr. Barigar, and Dr. Saale. The Spurs carried off the first prize, Elwood House captured second place, and the Freshmen made third place. Special mention should be made of the between-acts entertainment furnished by the Maskers and Jesters, especially of the "Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Sheen" act by Gerhard Dieckmann and Delmar Thompson. Bob Slingland and George Ice did excellent work as masters of ceremonies.

Dr. McConnell declared a holiday beginning on Friday noon, so that the students who were not busy working on floats and signs could witness another innovation—the Frosh-Soph greased pole contest. Twenty members from each class vied with each other in attempting to climb a greased pole surrounded by mud. The sophomores were declared the winners.

The parade on Saturday morning lived up to the Homecoming slogan—the biggest and the best. Over a mile long it contained more colorful floats than any previous parade. It was led by Mr. Christiansen and his C.W.C.E. Band in full dress uniforms. Next in line came the Intercollegiate Knights car bearing Queen Beverly and her Princesses, Evelyn and Lorraine. The following floats were selected for prizes: Kappa Pi, first place; Freshmen, second; A.W.S. and Junior Class, tied for third.

The Homecoming signs were more numerous than ever before; they were constructed for sturdier material, and featured more automatic animation. Munson Hall captured first place with their "Bowl 'Em Over Wildcats" bowling alley. The second place went to the Junior Class, and the third place was a tie between Elwood House and A.C.E.

As usual the banquet was the highlight of the 1948 Homecoming. Candle light, autumn flowers, soft music, old friends renewing friendships—these are the true meaning of Homecoming. Dan Ranniger presided as toastmaster. Dr. McConnell welcomed the alumni, and former S.G.A. president, Jim Adamson, responded. The address of the evening was given by Dr. Samuel Mohler. Richard Houser sang a group of songs. Dancing followed the banquet with music furnished by the Music Makers.

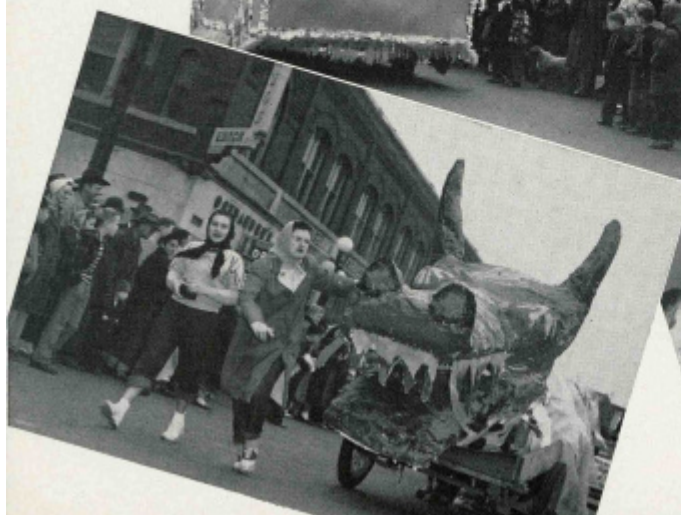

Other traditional events of Homecoming were: the annual Herodotean breakfast at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Mohler, The Intercollegiate Knights annual breakfast at the New York Cafe, the Kappa Delta Pi annual luncheon at Websters. The annual C.W.C.E. Alumni meeting was the most enthusiastic one ever held. A stronger organization was achieved through the Kittitas County Alumni Association with Mrs. William Ranniger as president. It is hoped that this organization will carry through. Plans were made for special alumni get-togethers at the next Homecoming.

Dance Club

Dance Club was re-organized in 1947 for the purpose of organizing into one group those girls having special interests in dance as an art; to provide means for further dance study and expression than is provided through class work; and for those girls who love to dance, a chance to enjoy it as a building and creating activity.

Officers of the organization were Helene Mataya, president; Ann Sellwood, vice-president; and Eva Eyres, secretary. Miss Shirley Nelson was the advisor.

Dance Club presented in its spring recital three works: "The Evening Prayer" by Humperdinck, "Peace Comes to Me," a modern choral work, and Fred Waring's arrangement of "Low Lands," a sea chantey.

A. C. Education

The main objectives of this organization is to provide a means by which members interested in education, both elementary and secondary, may achieve professional improvement and enjoy professional fellowship, through exchanging ideas and experiences, receiving news of the wider educational world and discussing and promoting better educational opportunities for children everywhere. Teachers, supervisors, educational administrators and others interested in the problems of early childhood education are eligible for membership. This year our members come from people interested in all different levels of teaching.

And those we teach

InterVarsity Christians

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship is an evangelical movement on the campuses of fifteen different countries and nearly every state in the United States.

The local chapter started the school year with a two day conference at Bible Rock Camp. The movie "Voice of the Deep" was presented to the Campus. A dinner party was held honoring the compiler of the Inter-Varsity hymn book. A formal banquet, an annual event is held in the Spring.

The officers for the year are: Mrs. Brown, advisor; Bill Parker, president; Floyd Clark, vice-president; Marjorie Taylor, secretary; Anna Meyer, treasurer; Darl Taylor and Irene Maas, social chairmen; Bob Griffin, and Rudy Brownell, publicity chairmen; Donna Brandt, program chairman.

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club is composed of majors and minors in Home Economics. The Club is a member of the National Home Economics Association.

Meetings are held once a month with guest speakers and special guests honored. Mrs. Robert McConnell spoke at the first meeting on Homemaking. The second meeting was the annual Christmas party and initiation of new members. Mrs. Charles Saale spoke at the next meeting on Home Decoration. At the February meeting a panel discussion was held. Members of the panel were Dr. Richard J. Wilmeth, chairman, Mrs. Reginald Shaw, Mrs. Ruth Woods, Marie Nelson, Delbert Pratt and William Pethel. The topic was "Family Relations Today."

The club advisors were Miss Ruth Redmond, Miss Helen Michaelsen, and Miss Barbara Adam. Officers for the year were: president, Marie Nelson; vice-president, Olga Belzer; secretary, Norma Nelson; treasurer, Lucille Sharp; and scribe, Faye Sethe.

Whitbeck Club

Whitbeck Club is an organization for students who are majors or minors in geography, and meetings are held three times each quarter at the home of Dr. Reginald Shaw. The living room of the Shaw home lends a friendly atmosphere for these informal meetings. Movies and lectures are given by people who have had experiences in other parts of the world. After each meeting time is spent in visiting discussion and drinking coffee.

Social events of the year include the annual Christmas party and the breakfast during the spring quarter.

Officers of Whitbeck Club were Dayton Denton and Fred Miletich, co-presidents for the fall quarter; Ray Carr and Agnes Crawford during the winter months. The club advisors were Dr. Shaw and Dr. Robert Funderburk.

Associated Women Students

Usually we speak of the Associated Women students as A. W. S. This organization is nation-wide in extent, being found on all co-educational college and university campuses, and is composed of all women students enrolled in the institution. A. W. S. is one of the largest organizations on any campus and its main purpose is to promote activities and social functions for all the students.

Here at Central Washington College, the Associated Women Students sponsor scholarship funds for two outstanding freshman women, a scholarship plaque which is presented to the womens' living group with the highest scholastic standing, a loan fund for women students, and a service honorary Spurs, a club composed of Sophomore women who perform various services to the college.

Besides all these, A. W. S. also provides entertainment for the students such as teas, mixers, and a formal dance. At the beginning of the year we held an Orientation Tea for freshman and an all-school student-faculty Welcoming Tea. The next big event on our social calendar was the Snowball, our traditional formal dance. Much credit for the success of the Snowball is due the I. K.'s who do the decorating for the girls. The Snowball was held December 11, 1948 and on Sunday, December 12, 1948, the A. W. S. sponsored the annual Christmas Tea in Kamolas' social rooms.

Much credit for the success of A. W. S. events is due to the guidance and helpfulness of our advisors, Mrs. Annette Hitchcock and Miss Hazel Brain.

We feel that this year of 1948-49, has been most profitable and beneficial to all members of the A. W. S. organization.

Cap and Gown, now Mortar Board, at Montana State College chose the first Spurs in 1922. The C.W.C.E. Spur chapter, formerly Iyoptians, is the twentieth in the nation, the first C.W.C.E. Chapter, and was initiated February 6, 1949.

Spurs are chosen by scholarship, activities, and school spirit. Their purpose is to promote school spirit, loyalty, and helpfulness and to support school activities and traditions.

C.W.C.E. Spurs usher at concerts, float at teas, give receptions and dances, help with Homecoming, Mother's Day, Commencement, conduct the W. S. S. F. drive and do other college services when asked.

Intercollegiate Knights

The Intercollegiate Knights were formed on this campus in 1937 with Dr. L. Sparks as the advisor. Before this club became part of the National organization it was known as the Knights of the Claw. The I. Ks. were formed and operate as a service organization.

The I.Ks. hold annually a fall formal, a spring picnic and this year they played host to a region convention which saw many members from this state and many from other states participate.

Officers: J. Paulson, Duke; D. Mitchell, Duke; H. MacDougal, Scribe; D. Lowe, Guard; D. Tobia, Historian; D. Rifenbery, Chancellor; G. Moergeli, Jester.

S. G. A.

The Student Government Association exists for the sole purpose of providing every student on the campus with a more satisfactory and beneficial college life, in respect to fostering social and organizational activities and administering a democratic and co-operative form of government to the extent of its jurisdictional powers. The Student Government Association, itself, is the largest on campus, for every student becomes a member of it when he is registered here. Its nuclei, the SGA Council, is the most representative of all groups, and justifiably so, for to achieve its purposes, it must contact, in some way, every individual on the registrar's rolls. In order to establish this personal contact, seven of the ten members of the Council consist of a representative for each of the seven living groups, Munson Hall, Sue Lombard Hall, Kamola Hall, Walnut Street Dormitories, Off-Campus Men, Off-Campus Women, and Vetville.

The representatives elected for their respective areas for 1948-49 were:

Sue Lombard, Myrtle Hatcher; Kamola, Joy Breshears; Munson, Ralph Thomas; Walnut Street, Al Adams; Off-Campus Men, Jack Norling; Off-Campus Women, Helen McDougal; Vetville, Warren Scott.

The other three voting members of the Council proper are the President, the Vice-President, and the Secretary. The Campus Crier editor is also considered a member of the Council, though without voting power. Those officers for 1948-49 were: president, Don Dowie; vice-president, Wilbur Chinn; secretary, Mary Lou Shaver; Campus Crier Editors, Dick Norman, Bob Slingland, and Tony Adeline.

Honor Council

The Honor Council of 1948-49 effectively carried out two new projects in addition to its routine duties. Under the guidance of the personnel department, the council planned and put into effect an extensive freshmen counselling system, using upperclassmen as counsellors. They assisted with freshmen orientation. Later in the year, the Honor Council assisted in a survey of library conditions. The result of the survey was extended library hours each evening. Honor Council duties consisted of working with living groups on their special problems.

Members of the Honor Council, Phyllis Dunlap, Norland King, Gertrude Sandberg, Evelyn Offield, Jim Brooks, and Milton Dallman.

Pep Club

Organizing the cheering section at athletic functions in order to give better support to the cheer leaders is the purpose of the Girls' Pep Club.

This year the club was responsible for the printing of the basketball roster seen in the gym. It also decorated the goal posts for homecoming and sold pom poms and rooter hats. It is instrumental in sponsoring various school activities and dances after games. The functions are held for the benefit of the whole student body.

The club also had a drill team which was under the leadership of Norma Satterlee.

Officers of the club this year were: Dot Safreed, president; Lenore Shaus, vice-president; Donna Hutchings, secretary; Rose Milhofer, treasurer; and Ilene Klett, pepstorian.

Because of the increase in enrollment at C.W.C.E. this year, membership into Pep Club was extended to 76 girls rather than 50.

Herodoteans is one of the oldest organizations on the campus. It was organized in 1923.

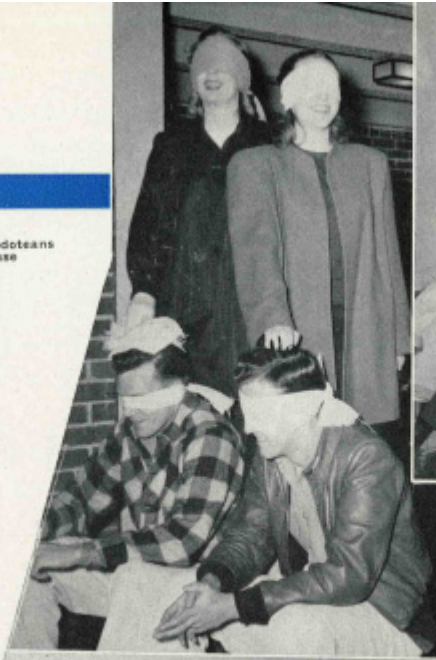

The membership is composed of people interested in furthering their work in the social sciences. The purpose of the organization is to follow the teachings of Herodotus, the "father of human history."

The organization holds one or two initiations per year. They have an annual Homecoming alumni breakfast, a bean feed, and a waffle breakfast.

The group planned to sponsor a radio program concerning current affairs and have a panel for such a discussion. The organization was divided into groups who presented the program at various meetings, with outside speakers also invited to address the group.

Officers of the club are: Allan Miller, president; Phyllis Dunlap, vice-president and social commissioner; Betty Byars, secretary; Bruce Harding, treasurer; Dr. Wilmeth, advisor; and Dr. Mohler, associate advisor.

Social Democrats

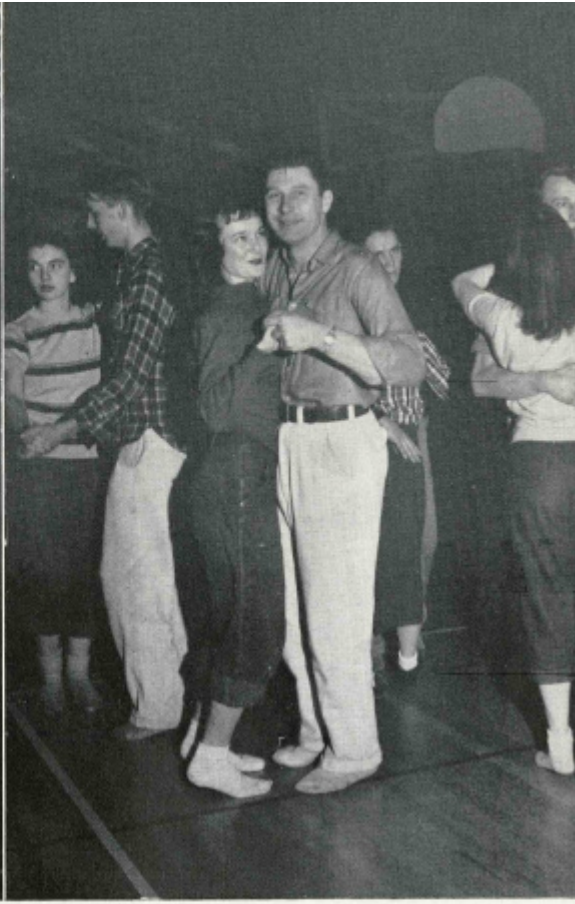

Last October '48 a group of students on the Campus who were interested in things besides themselves met and formed The League for Social Democracy. Wilbur Pool and Warren Faulkner fathered the idea and the other members supported the organization by their attendance and participation in the student forums on everything from Campus politics to World Government.

The League endeavors to have a prepared speaker every Wednesday night on some subject of current interest. Several prominent and authoritative lectures have been featured as well as the students who have spent considerable time on research and fact finding for the forums.

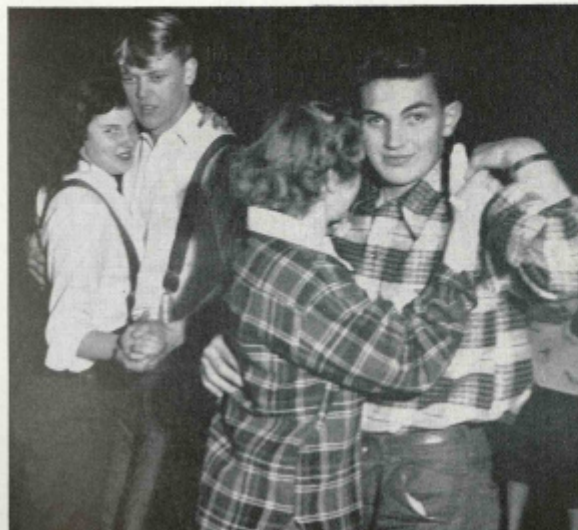

Mrs. Laura Parrott has been acting president for winter quarter '49 and at considerable effort she has been able to keep the meetings interesting and of high caliber.

Campus Club Committee

The Campus Club building itself was moved by the U. S. Government from the Ellensburg Airport where during the war it was an officers' club. A committee responsible for the maintenance of the Campus Club was formed in the year 1946. All appropriations, laws, activities, repairs, and improvements must be acted upon by this committee.

The Campus Club Committee's aim is to give each student the best possible club and eating place of his own where he can dance, study, play cards, ping pong, and converse with fellow students.

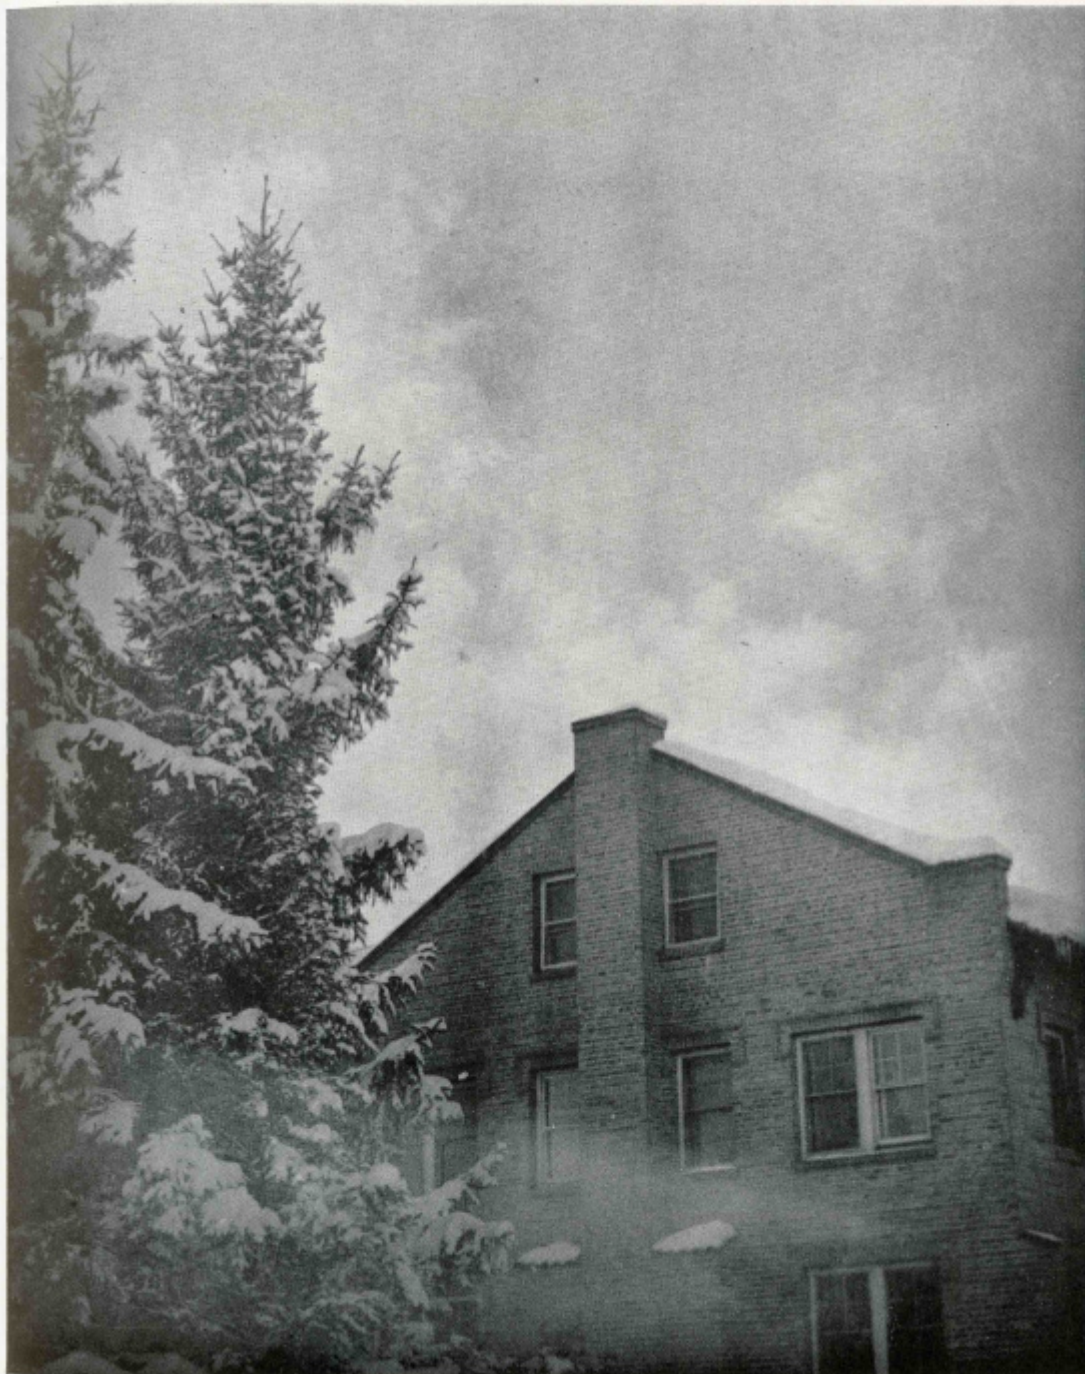

This year through the hard work of the committee members and the wonderful cooperation of students, the Campus Club has had numerous game parties, card tournaments and dances. Many improvements have been made for the Club such as a suggestion box, new ping pong net, and more games.

The committee is composed of eight members: Dr. Samuelson, Director of Student Personnel; Robert G. Fisk, Dean of Men; Kenneth Courson, Business Manager; Mrs. Swangler, Manager of the Campus Club; George Moergeli, Senior Class Representative; Gordon Newton, Junior Class Representative; and Corinne Powell, Sophomore Class Representative.

Women's Recreational Association aims at sponsoring a program including both sports and dances for students who have special interest and talent in these activities.

Under the advisory of Miss Jesse Puckett and leadership of the president, Ruby Gomer and her council, vice president, Lenore Schaus; secretary, Nadine Powell; and sports manager, Irene Mass; a well rounded activity program was worked out where by volley ball, basketball, badminton, baseball and tennis was enjoyed by all. This year has been an outstanding year in participation of sports and membership of the club.

Two outstanding events of the year were the initiation banquet and the Spring camping trip.

We are proud to say that the interest in womens sports are growing and some day will be outstanding among the colleges of the Pacific Northwest.

Sigma Mu Epsilon is a music honorary for sophomore, junior and senior music majors and minors. Its purpose is to promote co-operative effort among members of the Music Department.

Officers of the organization this year were Bill Simonis, president; Don Castagna, vice-president; Winnie Williams, secretary; Richard Houser, treasurer; Betty Byars, social chairman; and Lois McKnight, historian.

Sponsoring a chamber music group on April 29th, a Washington state all-college music meet, and compiling a music book plus sponsoring weekly music appreciation hours, ushering and selling tickets for concerts and other music programs, and participating in many all-college functions have made for a varied and active year.

Let there be music

Band

Highlighting the numerous activities of the Central Washington Band were the two concert tours which carried the organization into the lower Yakima Valley during the winter quarter and to the coast during the spring quarter.

Under the able direction of A. Bert Christianson, the band played assembly and evening concerts in seven high schools in the Yakima valley. In the coast cities from Seattle to Centralia sixteen concerts were presented. The sixteen piece C.W.C.E. Swing Band performed as a special feature of each assembly program. Enthusiastic and appreciative audiences attended these concerts.

True to tradition the band was on hand for each home football and basketball game. They also made the trek to C.P.S. where the group entertained with a clever western halftime maneuver.

On April 8 the band staged its first "Band Blare", an all college dance with music by the swing group, the "CWCEans." The year ended with the annual home concert and with special Commencement music for the graduation exercises.

Chorus

Directed by Wayne A. Hertz, the Central Choir this year proved to be one of the best ever developed. Over 150 students sang in the choir from which group the concert choir of 70 was selected. The annual Christmas program featured the Nativity. Approximately 40 concerts were given during the college year. In February the choir sang 11 concerts in the Yakima Valley. On March 4 the annual winter concert was presented with unusual success. Early in the Spring quarter the choir presented the Messiah. During the week of April 17, they toured Western Washington giving 17 concerts, including a broadcast over station KOMO, Seattle. Climaxing the college year the annual spring concert was given on June 4. A new tradition is being started this year wherein the choir will present its final concert during commencement week in order to enable out-of-town visitors to be present.

The choir officers this year were: Bernard Knapp, president; Myrtle Brown, secretary; Dale Troxel, publicity agent.

Kappa Delta Pi

Kappa Delta Pi, a national honor society in education, was organized in February of 1937, and aims to foster high standards of preparation for teaching and to invite into bonds of fellowship those who have attained excellence in scholarship and achievement as students of Education.

During the school year Kappa Delta Pi had a Homecoming luncheon and sign, three pledge breakfasts and initiations, and sponsored a program on "Improving the Teacher Training Curriculum at C.W.C." through talks by alumni and professional people. Winter quarter Kappa Delta Pi gave a fire-side in honor of outstanding sophomores. Spring quarter activities included sponsoring a panel of superintendents in a discussion of first year teaching problems which was presented to the graduating senior class. The year's activities were climaxed and concluded by the annual Spring Banquet.

Officers of Delta Omicron chapter this year included Leota Olney, president; Lee Gavirno, vice-president; Shirley Beck and Shirley Branton, secretaries; Miss Amanda Hebel, treasurer; Milton Dallman, historian-reporter and Dr. E. E. Samuelson, counselor.

Art Department

Students majoring in art may be enrolled in one of three divisions of the department; arts and science, education, or a two year commercial course. The Bachelor of Arts degree has been issued in the College of Arts and Science since enabling legislation was passed in 1947.

Fine courses are offered in drawing, lettering, painting, art history, modeling and sculpturing, water color, figure construction and design.

Industrial Arts subjects taught include creative crafts, wood work, photography, pottery, metals, and metal and electrical construction.

Works from the Fine Arts classes have been exhibited in the Administration building and in the library. Beautiful examples of students work in Industrial Arts have been displayed in the hall of the Industrial Arts building and in the Library.

Scenes from the play
"JOAN OF LORRAINE"

Drama

For their first production of the year the campus actors presented two performances of My Sister Eileen by Chodorov and Fields in the college auditorium, November 18 and 19. This modern comedy, without attempting to moralize on the qualities of virtue and perseverance possessed by its young heroines, merely conveyed them through a series of humorous incidents that they experienced while career hunting in the "big city."

With the exception of four, all the members of the cast of twenty-eight made their first appearance before a college audience in My Sister Eileen. The newly disclosed talent represented in the cast was well received by the audience at both performances.

The principals in the cast were Peggy Chestnut, Pat Urdahl, Jannie Clement, Marilyn Dreher, Joan Brown, Bob Slingland, Gene Parsons, Norm Vannelli, Stan Kibbey, Don Fenton, Glenn Edmison, and Bill Boyd.

Mr. Norman Howell directed, and Gerhard Dieckman staged the production.

As the final production the calendar of dramatic events for the year, Maxwell Anderson's Joan of Lorraine was presented and well received by the audiences that attended the two productions on the evenings of February 24 and 25 in the college auditorium. In an original treatment of dramatic form the author told the story of the inspired girl who led France to victory over the invading English forces.

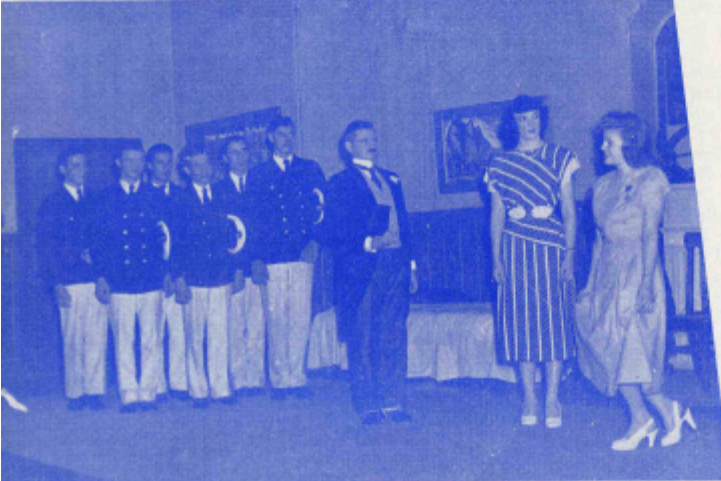

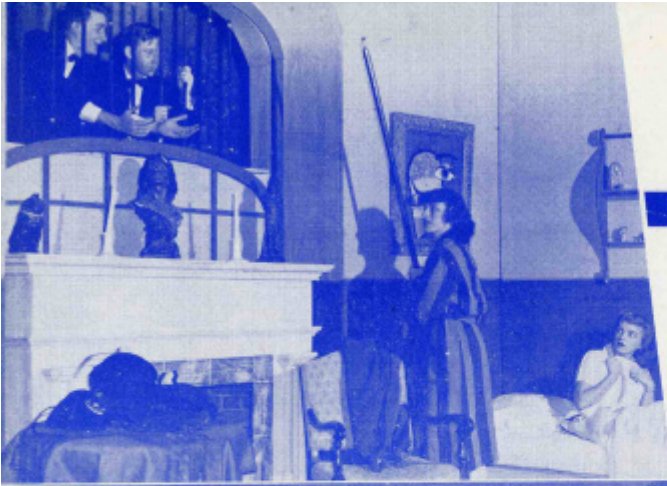

Four members of the cast, Kay Sorenson, Delmar Thompson, Dan Ranniger, and John Pickens, concluded their undergraduate careers with excellent performances in this play. Other principal members of the cast were Stan Kibbey, Barbara Bennison, Peggy Chestnut, Bill Boyd, Tommy Knudson, Frank Pitcher, Marilyn Dreher, John Schneider, Gene Parsons, Don Fenton, Ralph Ruff, Glenn Edmison, and Ramon Ross.

Mr. Norman Howell directed the play and Gerhard Dieckman did the staging.

Maskers and Jesters

Maskers and Jesters was re-organized in 1945 by the students on the campus who were interested in dramatics. The old constitution was revised and the club started with a clean slate.

Membership of the club is based on a point system. Points are earned by participation in plays or by working backstage on a production.

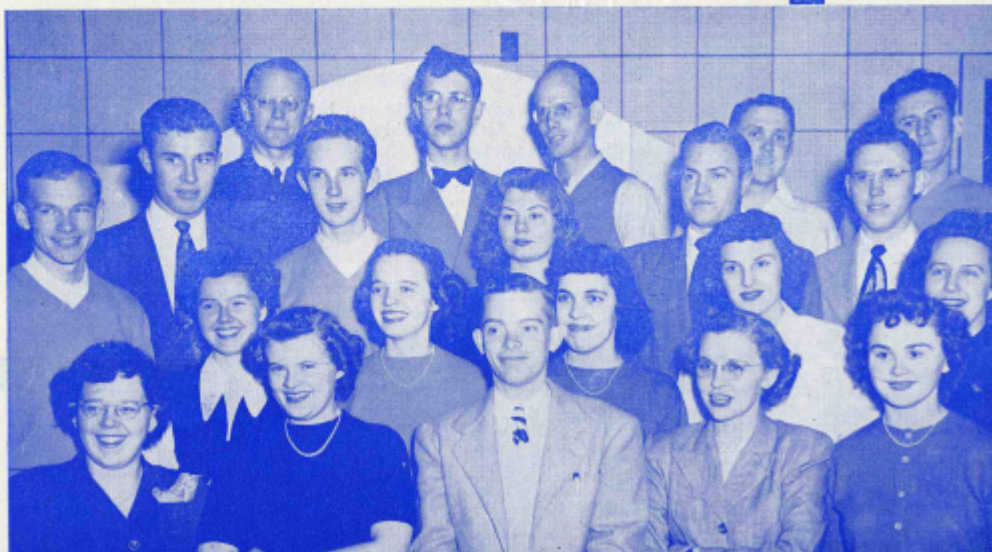

This club is made up of regular members and understudies.

The understudies have every privilege of the club except those of voting or holding office. These understudies will become regular members when they have acquired enough points to become a regular member.

The officers of the club are: Master Masker, Gerhard Dieckmann; Minor Masker, Gael La Trace; Pen Masker, Jo Ann Dorr; Money Maskers, Donna McCune and Don Castagna; Fun Masker, Phyllis Dunlap; Masker Advisor, Mr. Norman Howell.

Kamola

Kamola Hall started off the new school year with the traditional initiation of the Freshmen girls by the upperclass girls. Although the upperclassmen were greatly outnumbered, the Freshmen were put through the ropes and everyone agreed they had been thoroughly initiated.

House officers for this year were Evelyn Cain, president; Sandy Boyd, vice-president; Alene Maloney, treasurer; Jo Dunlap, secretary; and Jeanne Alkana, social chairman.

The traditional Christmas party was enjoyed by all 190 Kamola girls. They were awarded first prize for their window display and honorable mention on their Christmas decorations.

Other activities during the year included a Halloween party, a Valentine party and a Fireside. The concluding event was the Kamola Hall Formal held May 14th.

Sue opened the year with a lively fun-packed fireside. Following this event the girls began in full force to prepare for Homecoming. Although no honors were won, the fun of working together was well worth the effort.

Winter quarter included an exciting sleigh-ride on a cold Sunday evening after which the girls brought their dates back to Sue for a chili feed. Also another fireside was enjoyed after the play performance in February.

With the coming of Spring quarter Sue's annual Spring house dance was held.

Officers this year were: Lee Gaviorno, president; Mary Marble, vice-president; Zoe Starkweather, secretary; Phyllis Schroeder and Shirley Branton, treasures; Deloras Chapman and Nadine Powell, social commissioners; Myrtle Hatcher, representative; Housemother, Mrs. Humphrey.

Elwood House

Elwood house, a new womens residence on the CWCE campus has been very active during its first year of existence.

A most successful fireside was held winter quarter. Refreshments, games and dancing were enjoyed by all who attended. The spring formal was the last important event of the year.

Fall quarter officers were: president, Winifred Williams; vice-president, Jean Marshall; secretary-treasurer Pegge Whithead; social commissioner, Helene Mataya.

Winter quarter officers were: president, Terese Martin; vice-president, Anna Merritt; secretary-treasurer, Florence Ann Haberman; social commissioner, Shirley Marrs.

Vetville

On October 21, the citizens of Vetville met and elected Lyle Dickie as Mayor with Warren Scott as representative to the SGA. Each unit met and elected a member to the Vetville Council. The Council met twice a month to discuss the needs and demands of the inhabitants of this 3 year old organization. June Knowlton acted capably as secretary at these meetings.

During the Christmas season the Vetvillities formed their annual caroling group to sing at the County Hospital, homes for the aged, and, as a tradition, serenaded Dr. Stevens at his home.

Vetville has entered all intermural competitive sports under the management of Wayne Jensen.

The most popular event of the year is the annual picnic held during the spring. This year's annual event was an occasion to bid good luck to the 50% of Vetville leaving after finishing college studies.

Hyakem

The purpose of this year's Hyakem has been, as all good annuals should be, to catch faithfully all events which may be amusing or interesting to you in future years.

In a limited space, it does its best to give credit where credit is due, to make a historical report, to be humorous, to be serious, to be a memory book, to be pictorial in photograph and word, to bring back to life those half-forgotten moments of fun and frolic, of thought and ambition.

Photographers, writers, layout girls, editors, proofreaders and typists have worked hard to get this Hyakem out on time and in good order. It represents much hard work by the HYAKEM staff who have strived to put a worthy book in your hands.

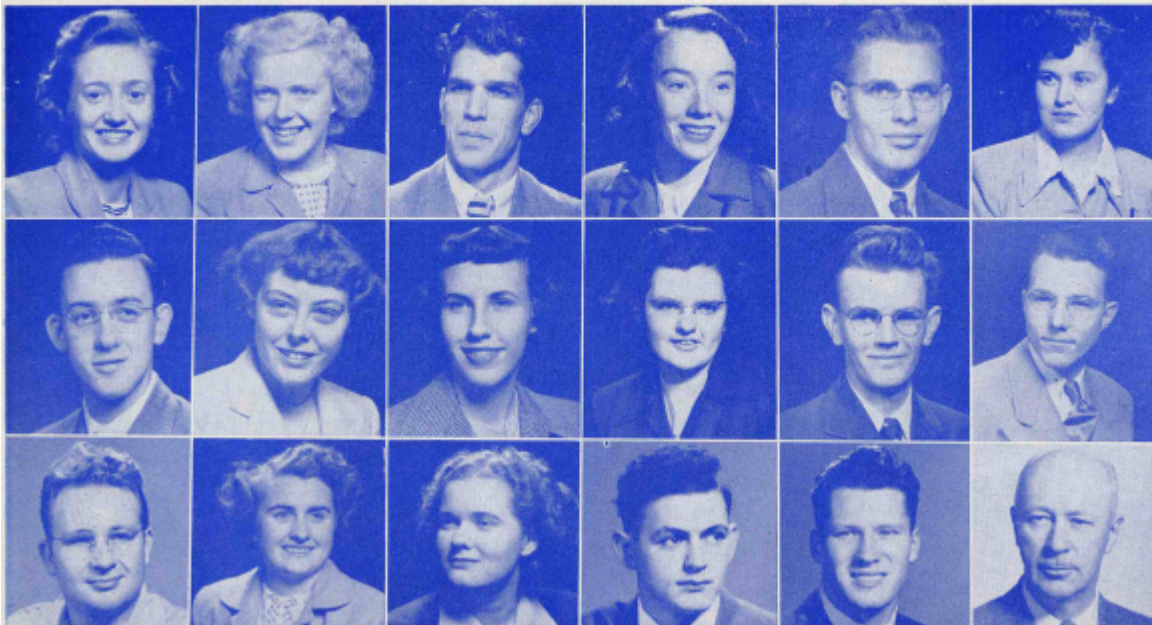

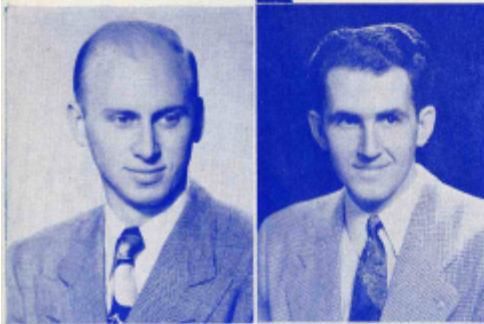

We hope you like it.

Campus Crier

For the first time during the career of the Campus Crier, three editors were elected to serve a quarter each. This was done to give the editors more experience in all phases of the work. These three editors, Tony Adeline, Bob Slingland, and Dick Norman, alternated as Editor-in-Chief, News Editor, and Sports Editor.

Most of the Crier staff were new members with the exception of the three editors and Jerry Varner, Roxiann Bundy, and Ann Belch.

Mr. Bert C. Cross, Director of Publications, acted as a very competent publications advisor for the Campus Crier during the year.

Sports

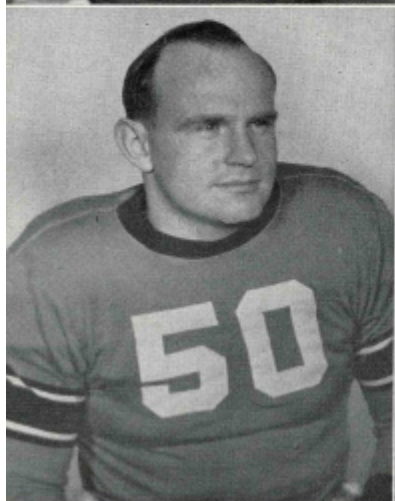

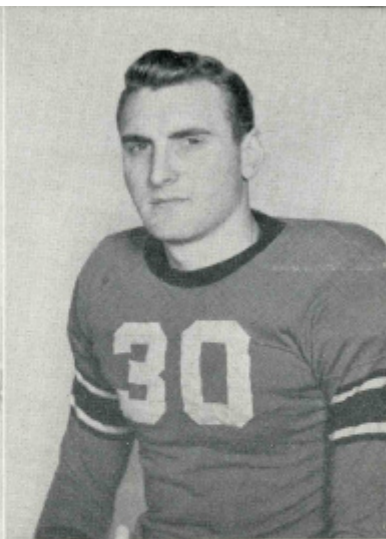

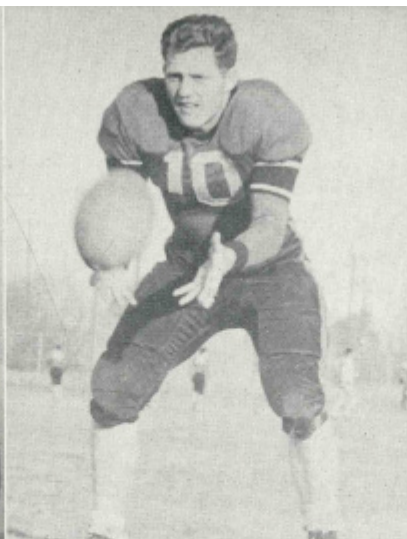

The inaugural year of the new Evergreen Conference found competition on the gridiron as tough, close and keen as any year that the sport has been participated in by Central. The Wildcats finished the season with an over-all record of five wins, three losses and one tie. Under new Coach Wilbur (Shorty) Luft the Cats wound up the regular season of play with a two win, three loss and one tie record which put them in a two way tie for fourth place.

Nation-wide statistics releases at seasons end found the Central Washington College grid team fifth in the nation (among small college teams) for the best defensive records.

Willamette Pre-Season Tilt: Coach Luft and crew made their first pre-season contest a winning one when they traveled to Salem and upset the powerful Willamette Bearcats, 13-7. Central outfought the huge Northwest Collegiate League entry throughout most of the game and their superior physical condition appeared to be the difference.

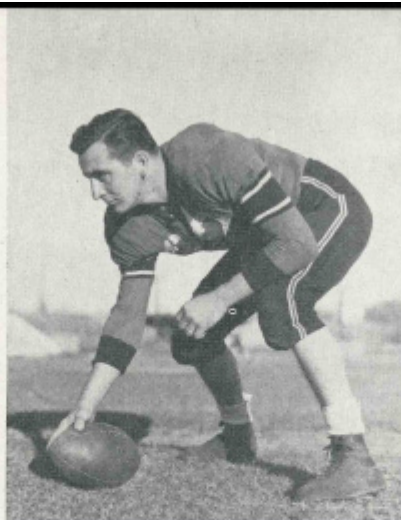

Fort Lewis Tilt: Central made it two wins in a row when they subdued a Fort Lewis Army 11, 24-6, at Ellensburg. The Cats completely outclassed the soldiers and Coach Luft gave his reserves plenty of chances to show their stuff during the contest.

Pacific Lutheran Opener: Central opened their season against PLC and lost out in a thriller, 7-0. Twice the Wildcats pushed across scores only to have the TDs called back because of rule infractions. The Lutes pushed over a score in the third period and held the Cats the rest of the way. Statistics for the contest were about even with PLC showing a slight superiority through the air which brought them their margin of victory. The game was played in Ellensburg.

Western; Traveling to Bellingham for their second round of conference action, the Wildcats edged out Western Washington College, 7-6. Central had a wide edge in all statistical departments despite the closeness of the score.

Southern Oregon Contest; Taking time out from league action for a week the Wildcats traveled to La Grande, Oregon where they steam-rollered over Southern Oregon College of Education, 39-0. The Cats led 13-0 at halftime but opened up in the final two periods to score their impressive win.

CPS Thriller; Swinging back into league action the Red and Blacks dropped game number two to rugged College of Puget Sound, 6-0. Central had a score called back or the crucial game might have turned out differently. Both clubs threatened at various times through the tilt but hard-luck touchdowns which dogged Central through the season were the undoing of the Cats again. Speedy Jack Dorr scored six called back touchdown runs during the season for the Wildcats.

St. Martin's; Playing at Ellensburg, Central got back into the win column against the lowly St. Martins Rangers, 6-0. Played in a driving rain neither club could get their attack moving and the game was mainly a defensive one.

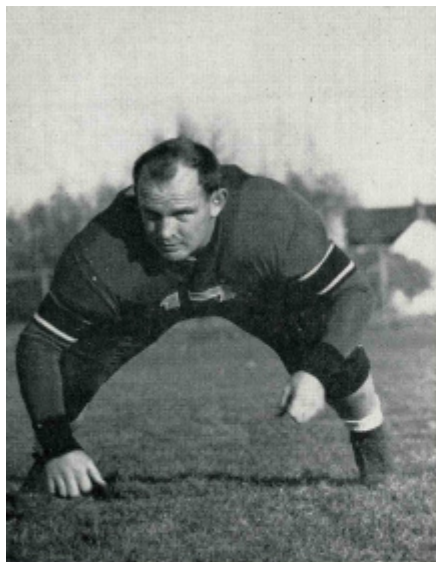

Eastern Savages; Co-Champs Eastern administered the only bad beating the Wildcats suffered all season, 21-6. Played before a huge Homecoming crowd at the Rodeo Field the Savages demonstrated a magnificent passing and smooth running attack to down the "Big Red Team."

Top: Smith and Duclaw
Middle: Shuey
Bottom: Jensen and Hawkins

Whitworth; Central wound up their season at Spokane where they fought to a 0-0 tie with the Whitworth Pirates. Fighting to break a deadlock in the conference standings, neither club could penetrate the others defense and they wound up the game and respective seasons in a tie for fourth place.

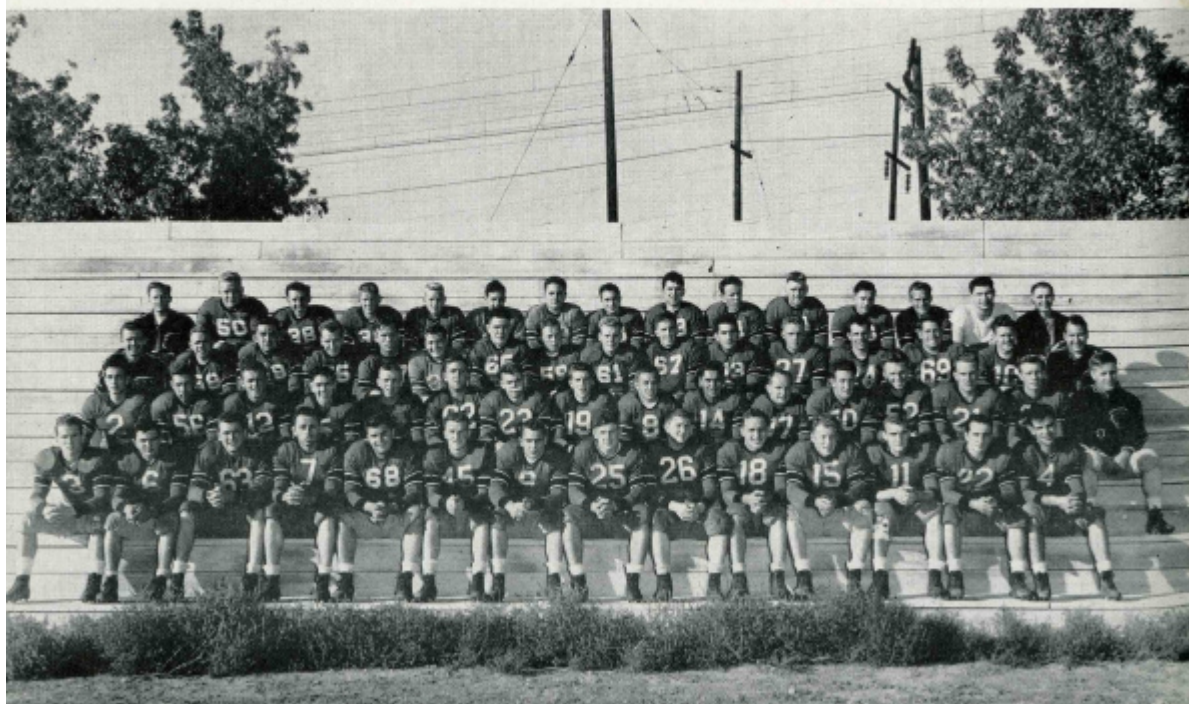

Osgood, Little All-American

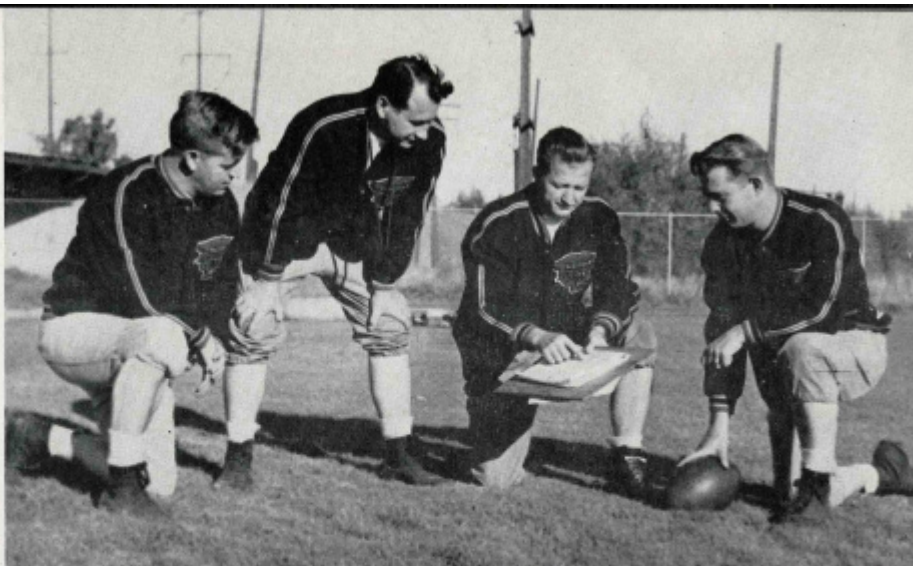

Bob Osgood is perhaps the greatest football player in the history of Central and certainly the recipient of more individual awards and honors in a single season than any other Central athlete. Three times an All-Conference guard selection, "Ossie" reached the pinnacle of his many success in 1948, his senior year at Central. In addition to receiving All-Conference recognition for the third consecutive season he was given the following honors; Honorary Captain, C.W.C.; Team Inspirational Award, C.W.C.; Button Jewelers Award For Inspiration; Honorary Captain, Evergreen League All Stars; Outstanding Lineman, Evergreen Conference; Little All American Guard, Associated Press; All Pacific Coast (large colleges) honorable mention; Little All Coast, United Press; All Pacific Northwest, United Press; Little All American, Williamson System; Williamson Trophy, for being voted the most valuable player in the nation's small college ranks.

Awards: Leo Hake, crack Wildcat tackle was chosen for an All-Conference berth. Frank Svoboda, Central fullback was voted the teams best blocker award. Jim Satterlee was selected on the All-Conference second team at end position. Eric Beardsley, Yakima J.C. transfer, was placed at a halfback spot on the All-Conference second team. Bob Bonjorni was given honorable mention rating at a tackle post. Dominic Bort received honorable mention acclaim at guard.

New Head Football Mentor: The Washington Wildcats were directed by a new Football Coach this season, Wilbur (Shorty) Luft, who succeeded L. E. (Monty) Reynolds. Luft is a graduate of W.S.C. where he was a three year football letterman. A lieutenant in the Navy Physical Education Program during the war, Luft formerly coached at Sunnyside and Renton high schools. An advocate of the T. formation and quick opening plays designed to shake tricky runners loose, Luft gave Central a team which provided plenty of thrills offensively and defensively.

CHAMPIONS OF THE EVERGREEN CONFERENCE

The Central Washington College Wildcat cage team nailed down the first Evergreen Conference basketball flag in one of the tightest and most bitterly fought title chase seen in small college ranks — four teams were in direct title contention right down to the wire. The Cats came through to cop the crown with a blistering win streak which saw them win their last seven league games without a setback. The Leo Nicholson men held a 12 win and two loss league record and an over all season mark of 21 wins and seven losses.

The locker room at half time

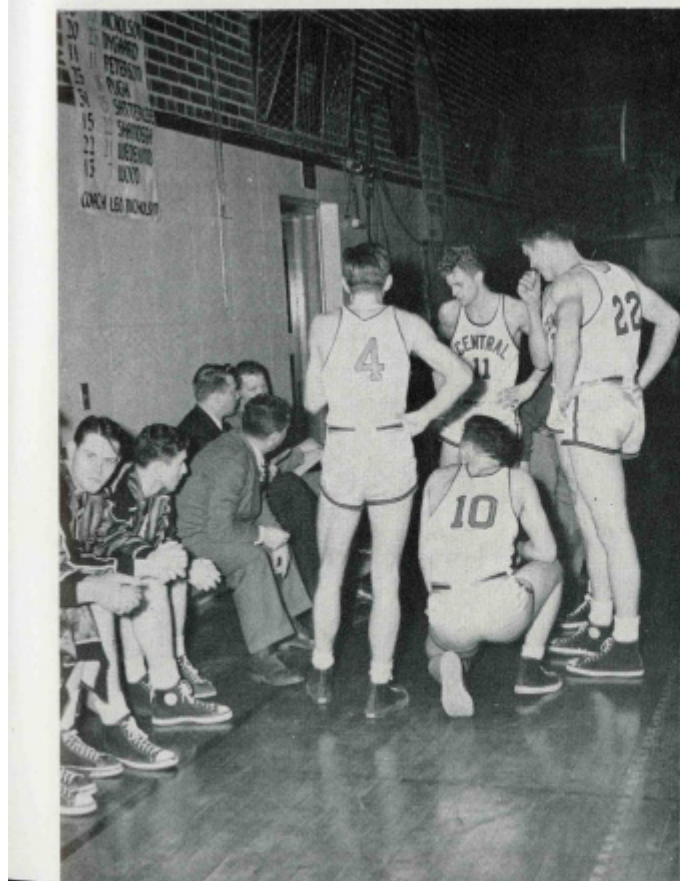

Central entered the N.A.I.B. elimination playoffs, held in Yakima this year, to fight it out with the three other leading state teams for the bid to represent Washington state in the N.A.I.B. finals at Kansas City, Missouri.

The Cats dropped their opening tilt to Gonzaga, 47-39, after leading through the first 33 minutes of the contest. In a consolation round the "Champs" dumped P.L.C., 62-46. C.P.S. went on to win the K. C. trip bid, although they were second to Central in conference play.

Who's going to get it?

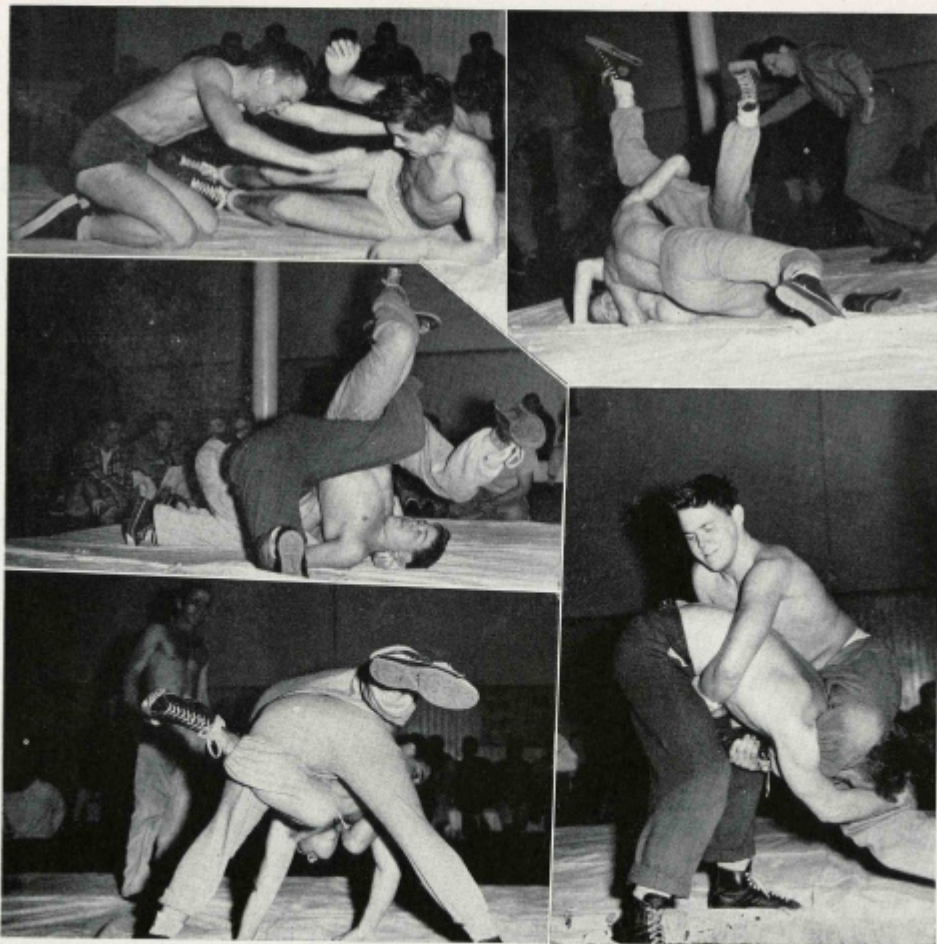

Wrestling

Intercollegiate wrestling was introduced to Central Washington College this year under the direction of R. A. Hall, commercial education teacher and a former coach.

All bouts are governed by the Intercollegiate wrestling rules which insure a clean and healthful sport.

Men turning out for places on Central's wrestling team were: Bill Behler, Jack Kontos, Jim Loucks, Paul Schuller, Bill Stefan, Jeb Jaber, Vern Harmon, Don Dragness, Gordon McQueen, Bob Griffin, Cliff Tilley, Vern Okronto, Dick Norman, Milt Koulit, Albert Wiebe, and Bill Parker.

Matmen in action!

Tennis

The Central Wildcat net team consists mostly of new material this year with only lettermen, Isherwood and Duncan returning from the '48 squad. Though relatively inexperienced the Central netmen have started their tennis season as though they were invincible, winning their first three matches, two from Yakima J. C. and one from St. Martin's by large margins.

Don Duncan held the number one position. Bernard Norton played number two man, and Leroy Isherwood held the third position. The last two team places were alternated between Jim Brickford, Dick Wehrli and Alan Adams.

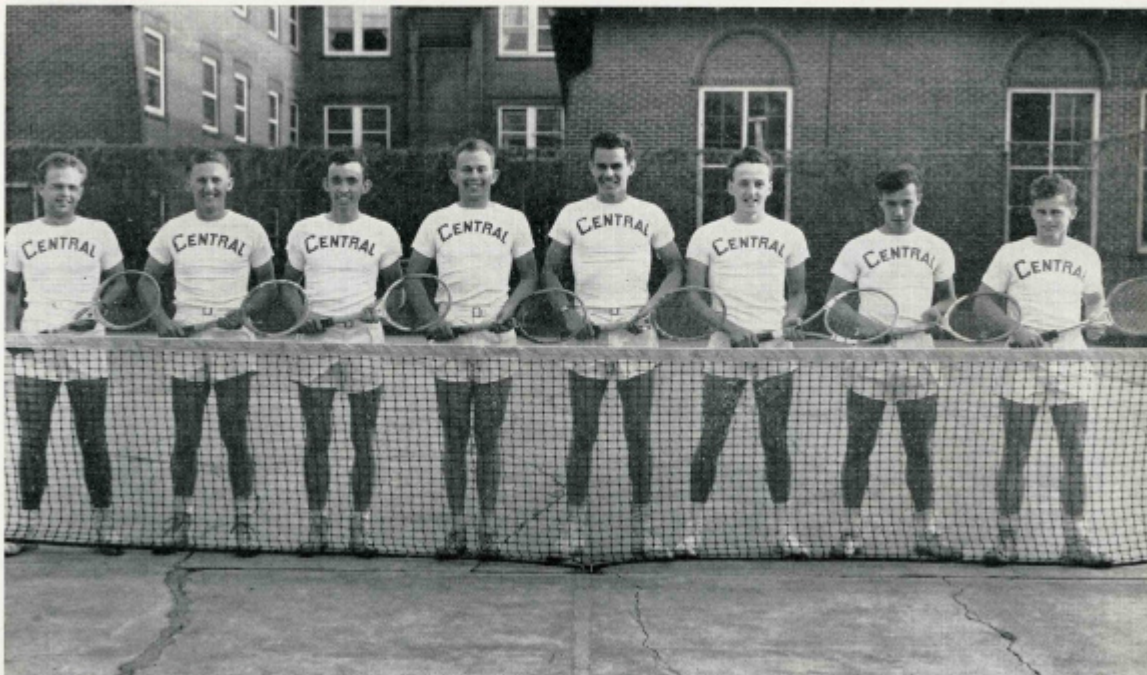

The Wildcats squad still had matches to play with Western, P.L.C., Whitworth, and Eastern when these results went to press.

Baseball

Hickory and horsehide are once again in the sport's spotlight. The initial varsity turnout, on Monday, March 28, found a host of lettermen and new prospects gathering on Tomlinson field to display their skills and point for a much-coveted varsity position.

Fourteen lettermen are returning from last year's squad: Don Miller, Ralph Sherwood, and Don Spencer, catchers; Don Lannoye, Billy Lee, Don Whitener, and Warren Wilson, pitchers; Jim Satterlee, first base; Harvey Wood, second base; Jim Clemens, shortstop; Dale Kreuger, third base; Bob McCullough, Dean Nicholson, and Wayne Wright, outfielders.

According to Coach Arnie Faust, this year's team will be much stronger than the one fielded last season. "I think that our defense is definitely stronger and the pitching looks better, but the batting will have to pick up if we expect to go any place this season," stated Coach Faust.

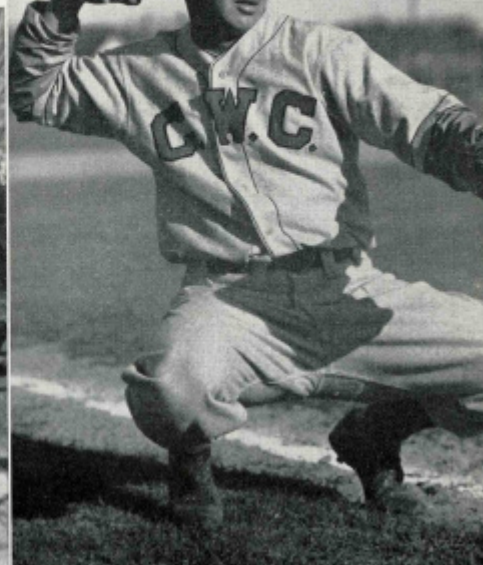

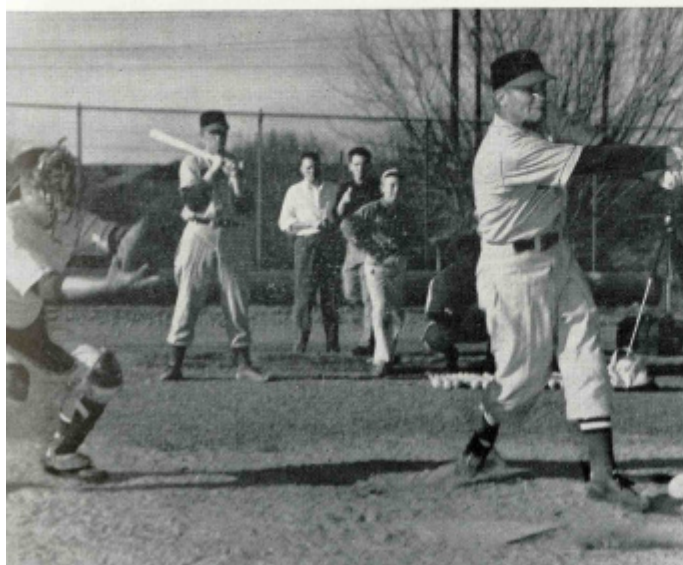

This year's junior varsity squad will again be under the coaching of Shelton Kem.

Track

With six tough meets on their 1949 schedule, the Central Washington tracksters went in rigid training for their first encounter with St. Martins and P.L.C. to be held at Parkland, April 23.

Although a few of the leading Wildcat's point-getters of last year have been lost through graduation and transfers, Coach Monte Reynolds will field a nucleus of nine lettermen and four or five promising prospects to carry the load for Central throughout the coming season.

The cinder burners will have to hustle this year to become lettermen with 15 points set as the goal which each man must acquire throughout the season to earn an emblem. However, full credit will be given each member of the relay team and a point made in the conference meet will count five points toward a letter.

Returning lettermen are Bob Box, sprints; Glen Baker, middle distances; Pete Hoyt, weights and hurdles; Russ Porter, pole vault; Dick Lynch, hurdles; Gene Prater, quarter-mile; Mickey Schooler, hurdles; Fred Peterson, high jump, and Paul Henley, javelin. Other leading prospects are: Eric Beardsley, weights; Jack Dorr, sprints; Bill Jergens, weights; and Bill Storie, quarter mile.

Central had two home meets this spring and traveled the remaining four. Schedule of meets were as follows:

April 23—Central and St. Martin's at Pacific Lutheran, Parkland.

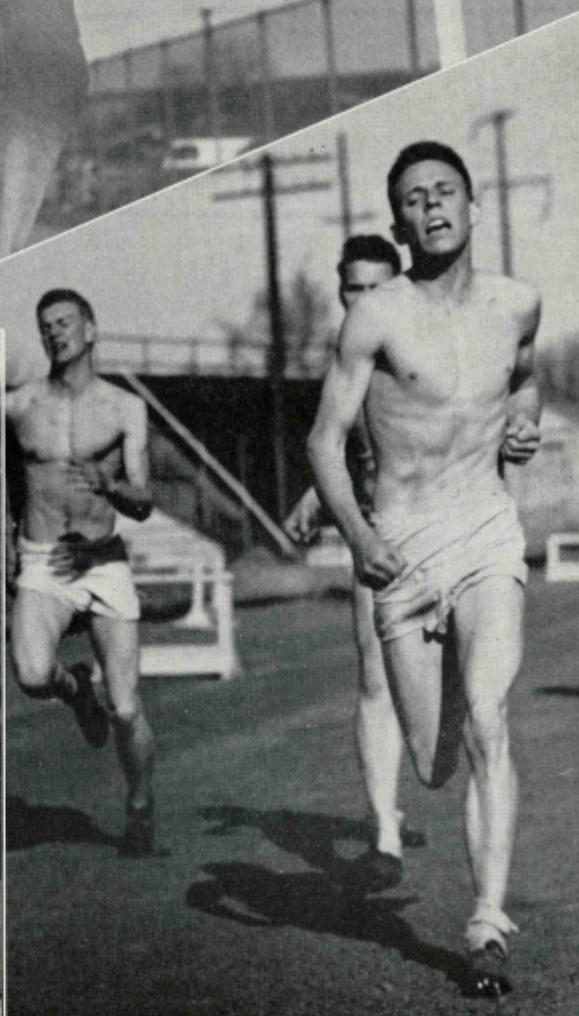

April 30—St. Martins and Western at Central, Ellensburg.

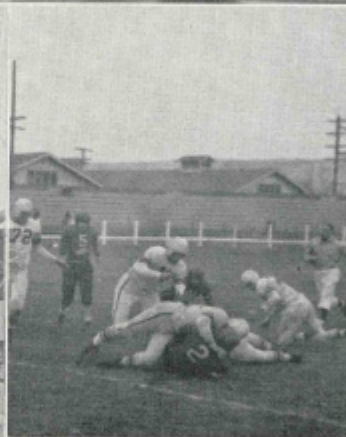

May 7—Olympia Relays, Olympia.

May 14—Whitworth and Gonzaga at Central, Ellensburg.

May 20—Central at Eastern, Cheney.

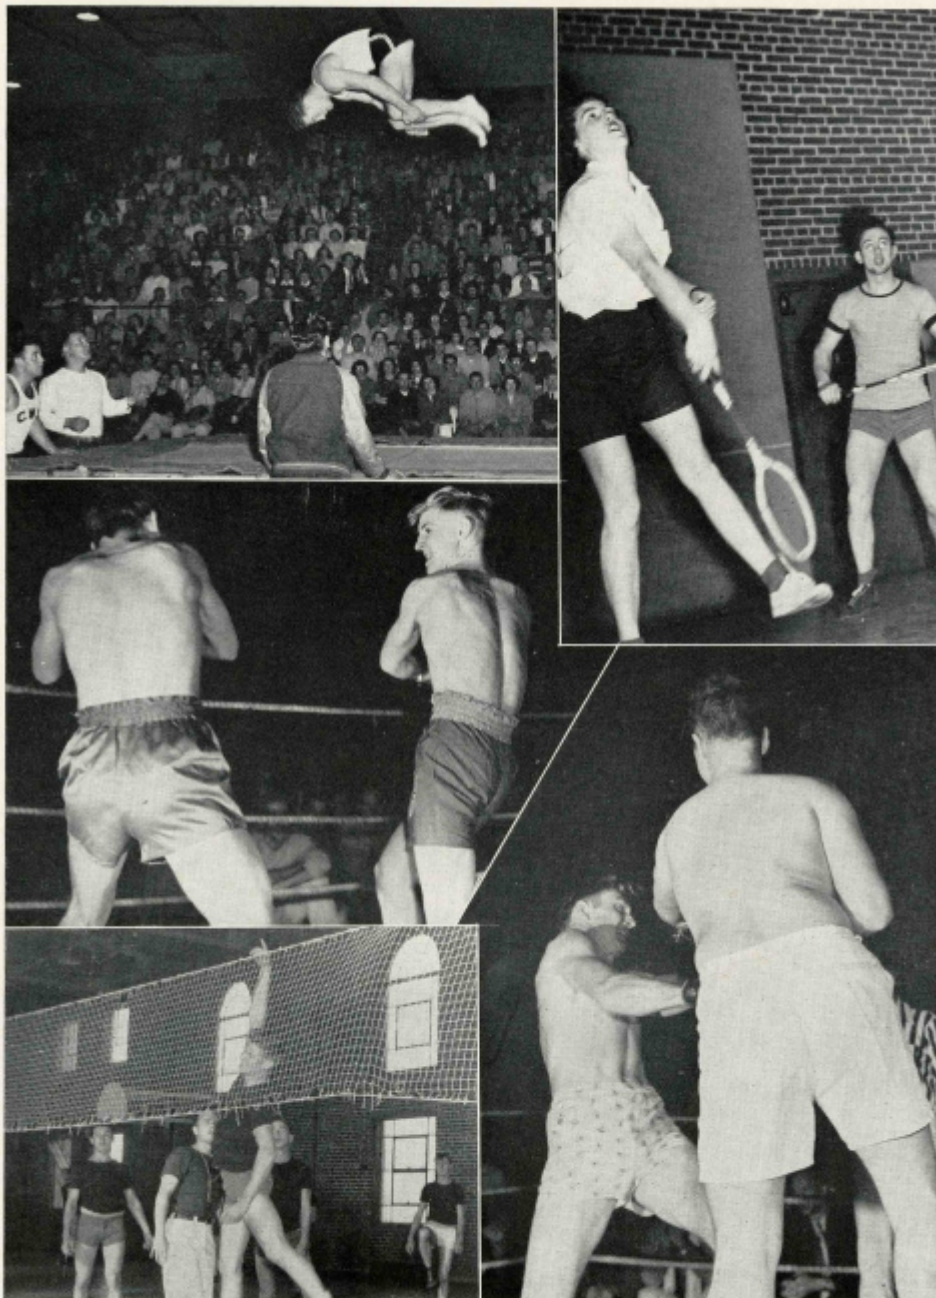

May 27-28—Conference Meet, Spokane.
